

Win Trespass vouchers and a whole host of other goodies!

Follow the clues to find all 8 caches on the trail. In each cache there is a letter. Unscramble the 8 letters to create two words. This is your answer!

Email or call in with your answer: info@ochils.org.uk or 01259 452520. Make sure you leave your name and a contact number (and let us know if you did the paper-based or GPS trail).

All correct entries will be entered into the competition. Maximum one entry per person. Winners will be selected at random. Winners' names will be posted on-line.

Competition ends on 30 June 2014. Winners will be notified within 7 days of the end of the competition.

Alva Glen Geo-cache trail

Begin in the Alva Glen car park

Welcome along to Alva Glen; Don't forget to bring your pen. With flora, fauna and history too, a walk of discovery's waiting for you.

Eight cool caches, each with a letter. An outdoor treasure hunt - what could be better? Follow the clues and open your eyes, solve the conundrum - you might win a prize!

1 An easy one to begin, to collect a letter and a grin. To the left of the post sits a gnarly tree, and cache number 1 - can you see?

2 Onwards to the bench of stone... For number 2, you're in the zone. (NB: the cache is not hidden in the bench so please don't remove any stones looking for it.)

3 Around the pond you should explore, discover Alvor's skeleton lore. For number 3, open your eyes...You might get a big surprise!

4 Further along, where waters fall, look carefully - the cache is small.

5 Up the steps, up the hill, to the pipe that took water to the mill. Look up, look down, look in, look out; into the pipe give a shout.

6 Between you and your 6th cache goal stands a wooden owl on his pole.

7 The huge stepped structure called a laide powered Alva's textile trade. Take your time and look around - and number 7 will be found.

8 At last the end, the final clue: the cache is placed in Eadie's view.
